 - b. Celebrate Urban Birds
 - c. What’s in My Backyard?

Once you read the requirements of the projects and you chose one project, you were supposed to email me at denise.lester@westwood.bccls.org by 5:00 pm on Friday, February 19 to let me know your decision. Next, you needed to

2. write a short 2-3 paragraph paper about your project, the process you followed, why it was important, who benefits from it and what you learned. Then submit this to me via email. It was due by or before 5:00 pm Friday, March 12. Those who did not complete this assignment MUST do so and submit their paragraph to me by

5:00 pm Wednesday, March 17. Due to late submission, time earned will be 45 minutes.

5. New Business/Projects:

- a. Marker Recycle Collection - The Women's Club of Westwood is collecting used/old markers for a recycling program with Crayola. Please bring in your old markers to the library and place in a container in the lobby.
- b. Teen Gamer needed to conduct a club for 6-12 graders on Kahoots. If you are interested, contact the Reference Librarian, Mrs. Dunn at janet.dunn@westwood.bccls.org
- c. Current Trends Survey: Libraries must continuously check national and local trends, reports, etc to stay on top of what popular culture is doing and to make connections to library services. What's trending on IG, Tik Tok, YouTube (ie, memes, influencers, challenges, slang, tech, apps or popular hashtags). You are required to e-mail your list of at least 5 trends with a short explanation to me via email by 5:00 pm on Friday, April 19. (Earn 30 mins)
- d. Public Service Announcement (PSA): You are required to make a short video between 30 seconds and 1 minute telling the public about library services or library related programs. Let's discuss ideas. Your idea must be approved by me before you film your video. These videos will be posted on the library's Instagram feed. (No Tik Tok vids) The complete video is due to me via email by 5:00 pm on Monday, March 22. (Earn 30 mins)
