

Westwood Public Library MEETING ROOM POLICY

GENERAL PRINCIPLES

The Westwood Free Public Library has two meeting rooms: the Downstairs Meeting Room, located on the lower floor of the Library and the Upstairs Meeting Room, located on the main floor of the Library.

The use of the meeting rooms is primarily for programs sponsored by the Library, the Pascack Valley Literacy Program, and the Friends of the Westwood Public Library.

SCHEDULING USE OF THE ROOMS

When Library activities are not scheduled, Westwood community and non-profit groups engaged in educational, cultural, intellectual, charitable, or social activities may apply to use a meeting room (complete application and submit to urbiel@westwood.bccls.org).

The meeting room may be used only during normal Library hours. No meetings are permitted after hours. All meetings must be open to the public and Library staff. Persons using the rooms are responsible for setting up and breaking down the room when finished. No undue burden shall be placed upon library staff for room clean-up.

Only light refreshments with permission may be served during scheduled use.

All meetings must be supervised by an adult. Children's groups using the room will need one supervising adult for every 10 children in attendance.

Upstairs Meeting Room

When the Upstairs Meeting Room is not scheduled, individuals, tutor pairs or small groups may use the room for up to one hour on a walk-in basis. Individuals need to check in at the front desk to request use. Walk in use is limited to meetings or quiet study, there is no other activity permissible. No food or beverages are permitted during walk in use.

The library meeting rooms may not be used for any commercial activity. Written applications must be approved before any use is permitted. Organizations do not have to permit non-members to speak, interrupt, or disrupt their programs and presentations. They do have to permit the public to attend, observe, and learn.

The Library does not advocate nor endorse the viewpoints expressed by meeting room users.
